Detailed requirements and additional information

Recommended language skills -Language of Instruction

Greek is the official language of instruction at CUT.

Incoming students are expected to have knowledge of the English language up to level B2 at least. They should include in their application documents official language examination certificates, such as TOEFL, IGCSE or a similar language proof. In case these are not available the students must present a certificate from their home university which verifies their knowledge of English Language up to level B2 and at the same time indicate the courses and level of English attended on their Transcript of Records. It is up to the host department to decide whether this certificate is considered enough for the student's acceptance.

Aside from the programs taught and offered in English, ( see below) incoming students are given the option of one to one tutorials, project based assignments, given bibliography and exams for courses that are pre-agreed with the academics in the relevant departments, that although are taught in Greek, are provided with facilitations in English ( also below).

Programs offered in English:

The Department of Communication and Internet Studies offers an English Speaking semester (during spring semester) available to all Erasmus Students, as part of its BA in Communication and Internet Studies
<http://erasmus.cut.ac.cy/wp-content/uploads/sites/39/2016/03/CIS-Erasmus-programme-Spring-2016-revised.pdf>

The Department of Multimedia and Graphic Arts offers an International Master Program <http://idmaster.eu/> in association with the Institute of Informatics of Tallinn University taught (online) in English

The Cyprus International Institute for Environmental and Public Health (CII) offers two Master Programs in English:

MSc in Epidemiology and Biostatistics

MSc in Environmental Health

The Language Centre offers the MA in Computed Assisted Language Learning <http://mastercall.weebly.com/>

Courses offered via Language Facilitation:

Please be careful as to whether the courses run in autumn or spring. Check them carefully on:

*<http://erasmus.cut.ac.cy/course-catalogue/>

**Facilitation courses are provided via individual tutorials, project based assignments, given bibliography and exams for courses that are pre-agreed with the academics in the relevant departments. Facilitation implies that although courses are taught in Greek, the individual tutorials, project based assignments, given bibliography and exams are in English.*

Greek and also other language courses (English, French, Italian, Spanish, German, and Russian) are available at the University's Language Centre. Incoming students are expected to attend the Greek Language course offered by the Language Centre of the University during the academic semester.

Greek language and Culture Course offers 4 ECTS (LCE 660).

* Level according to Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), see

Additional information-Grading system

The academic year consists of two semesters and the expected time of completion of an undergraduate course is eight semesters. Cyprus University of Technology applies the ECTS academic transfer system to all its programs in order to give transparency to its recognition procedures. The ECTS programme of study comprises 60 ECTS per academic year, 30 ECTS per semester. The Curricula is based on the European System Credit Transfer Units (European Credit Transfer 5 and Accumulation System), known as ECTS. One ECTS represents 25 to 30 hours of learning. The entire workload of the learner for an undergraduate program (four-years) is 6,000 to 7,200 hours. Attendance at all University programs is compulsory and continuous. The 1st cycle degrees award 240 ECTS in 8 semesters. An undergraduate program of study may include up to five courses of optional choice, outside the main study area of the given program. Second cycle degrees award 90 or 120 ECTS in 3 or 4 semesters. Third Cycle degrees award 240 ECTS in minimum 6 semesters. The official languages of the University are Greek and Turkish (as defined by the Constitution of the Republic of Cyprus).

Program Requirements: The grading system is numeric from 0 to 10 rounded to the nearest half unit and 5 is the passing grade. A student must satisfy the program requirements as described in the University's prospectus corresponding to the year of entry:

Grade Point	Meaning
9.5 – 10.0	Excellent with Distinction (Άριστα μεΔιάκριση):
8.5 – 9.49	Excellent (Άριστα)

6.5 – 8.49	Very Good (Λίαν Καλώς)
5.0 - 6.49	Good (Καλώς)
I	Incomplete
P	Pass (non marked course)
W	Official Withdrawal of course
Calculation of Semester Grade Point Average (GPA)

Housing

Cyprus University of Technology rents a number of flats /rooms, through subsidized rent, to students based on socioeconomic criteria. Furthermore, CUT implemented a new housing policy the «Network of Associate Premises to CUT” since June 2012 a policy through which the University may be in specific cooperation to ensure rent to its current students. The Network supports fully equipped and furnished apartments evaluated by the University that meet specific conditions for ensuring CUT students a quality in residence standards and a defined amount of rent. The maximum rent is set to € 420 a month for an one bedroom apartment,€ 530 for a two-bedroom apartment while the rent for a three-bedroom apartment is €630 a month. Finally, the University offers assistance and guidance to all students who need housing through a list of rental houses / apartments/rooms available for the period of their enrolment which is constantly renewed. The Student Welfare Service advises students to pay attention to issues such as health and safety of the building before signing any agreement.
