KNOWLEDGE IS YOUR PASSPORT FOR THE FUTURE

Dear Students,

Welcome to the Paris Lodron University of Salzburg! We are very happy that you have chosen our university for your international or Erasmus exchange year. The University of Salzburg is both a very old and at the same time a very new and modern university. It was first founded in 1622 as a Catholic Benedictine University by the former arch-bishop of Salzburg Paris Lodron, who had been born in the small northern Italian city of Rovereto. At the beginning of the 19th century the university was closed down during the Napoleonic Wars and it wasn't reopened afterwards when Salzburg became part of the Austrian Empire. The university was only re-established as a public university in 1962. It has expanded continuously during the following decades and has become a major institution. Today the University of Salzburg consists of four faculties with nearly 2,800 employees and about 18,000 students. One remarkable aspect of the Paris Lodron University of Salzburg is that its many different buildings are spread out all over the old part of the city of Salzburg, in the green areas of Nonntal and Freisaal and even on the Mönchsberg. Some of them date back to the time of the original founding of the university in the 17th century while others are newly built with modern designs, but all are provided with up to date facilities for teaching, learning and research.

I hope that you will have an interesting and enjoyable stay here in Salzburg and I wish you all the best and a wonderful time at our university!

Sylvia Hahn

Vice-Rector for International Relations and Communication

Erasmus+ Applicants

Students who would like to take part in the Erasmus+ Program should call up the International Relations Office website and access the Erasmus application form there. The application form requires both a signature and the official stamp from your home university. The completed original form should be mailed by the application deadline to the International Relations Office. In addition to the application form, the written nomination containing relevant Erasmus+ student information (name, program of study, length of stay in Salzburg) is needed from the sending university's Erasmus+ coordinator and can be sent via e-mail, fax or post to our incoming Erasmus+ coordinator. The appropriate departmental coordinator at the University of Salzburg also needs to be contacted. Once this application process is completed, the Erasmus applicant is guaranteed acceptance to the university as long as he/she is nominated within the fixed quota of exchange students.

Please note: An official Letter of Acceptance will only be sent to students who need an entry or residence visa for Austria.

Application Deadlines:

by June 30 for the following winter semester/academic year
by November 30 for the following summer semester

Applicants to Bilateral University Exchange Programs, International Exchange Programs

Students who would like to study at the University of Salzburg through a bilateral university program, or international exchange programs such as ISEP will also find the necessary contracts and applications on the International Relations Office website or at the international office at their home university. The completed application form for exchange students plus additional documents (Curriculum Vitae, Statement of Purpose, and Transcript of Records) and the students official nomination by his/her home university must be submitted to the International Relations Office by the application deadline. Once the documents have been received, an admission letter will be issued notifying the students. The letter will contain information regarding the students stay in Salzburg and registration procedures and may need to be shown to obtain entry documents from the Austrian government.

Admission and Welcome M@il

Approximately two months before the beginning of the semester, exchange students will receive an Admission and Welcome M@il with important additional information about studying and living in Salzburg.

German Language Proficiency: Requirements for Exchange Students

The University of Salzburg expects every incoming exchange student to have a minimum of German language competence at the B2 level according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). This is not a strict requirement, but all potential students should be aware that the primary language used for coursework at the University is German.

Online Pre-Registration

All students who have not been enrolled at the University of Salzburg in the past must pre-register online for their first term at the University. Online pre-registration will be open starting at the beginning of July (for the winter term) and at the beginning of January (for the summer term). Online pre-registering is required in order to get a date for the personal registration at the Student Service Centre at the University.

In-person Registration

Report to the International Relations Office

Upon arriving in Salzburg exchange students should report to the International Relations Office (Sigmund Haffner Gasse 18, 2nd floor) to pick up their welcome folder and the confirmation form for their mobility program.

Participants in mobility and scholarship programs only need their mobility program confirmation form and a valid passport for in-person registration. Once full payment of the Austrian Student Union Membership Fee has been received, the student is considered to have completed the official enrolment process at the University of Salzburg (see chapter on Austrian Student Union Membership fee below).

The Austrian Student Union Membership fee

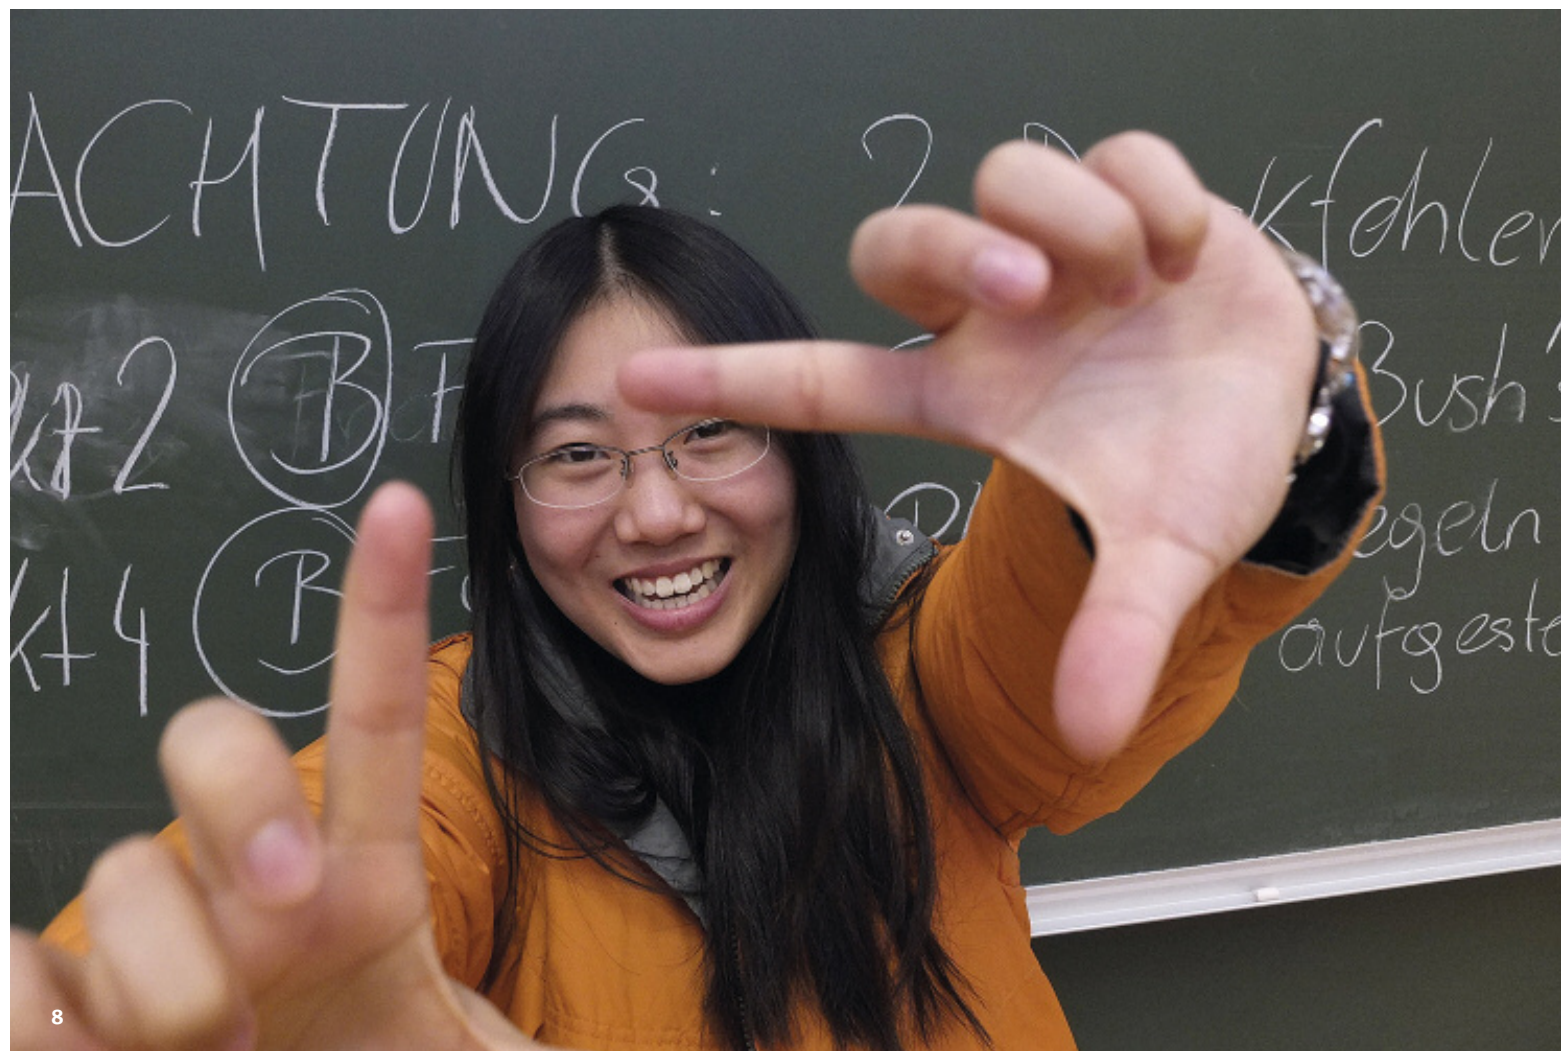

There are no tuition fees for participants in international mobility programs. They only have to pay the Austrian Student Union Fee which includes an accident and liability insurance.

COURSES COURSE CATALOGUE PLUSonline

Registration for Classes

The entire course catalogue can be found on the PLUSonline student services platform.

Please note: Registration for courses is only possible by using PLUSonline and after a student has completed the enrolment process and paid his/her fees!

German Language Courses

There are various courses at the University of Salzburg that are offered independent of degree curricula. These courses are designed to improve a student's proficiency, as well as prepare them for any exams they may choose to take. These courses are offered as a service to students. Consequently, there is a service charge of. The Department of German Language and Literature offers German classes to all interested international and exchange students. The classes are held during the semester.

Exchange students will receive an email from the International Relations Office with a link to the registration form for the German courses offered at the Department of German Language and Literature. Students interested in these courses should register for a course at the level they need by 5 September or 5 February using the online registration form. Students who register after the deadline will be placed on a waiting list.

In order to attend German language classes, students must take a placement test (except for those without any knowledge of German). The date for the placement test is during the first week of October. If a student cannot take the test as a result of late arrival in Salzburg or other extenuating circumstances, placement can be decided by a personal conversation with one of the teachers at the department.

The University Language Centre offers intensive German courses prior to the beginning of the winter semester (starting mid-September), and, in addition, also German language courses during the semester. All these courses are of course open to international and exchange students, too.

Courses on Austrian Language and Culture

The University Language Centre also offers a semester course for all students who would like to learn more about everyday life and culture in Austria. Depending on students' needs and interests, the contents of this course will be adapted accordingly. The course starts in the winter semester and is continued during the summer semester. It is however also possible to start the course in the summer semester. It is taught in German.

Courses taught in English

A general overview of courses taught in English, filtered by department, can be found on the homepage of the International Relations Office.

Special Lectures for international Students

Politics, History and Culture in Austria and Central Europe.

Austria with its geopolitical situation in the heart of Europe and its interesting history was always a center of culture and music, of conflicts and major migration streams. In this lecture series this checkered history of politics, economy, culture, language and ecological development will be examined in the long-term historical perspective over centuries up to the present. The interesting subject matter of this overview and its presentation in English makes it a very special offering for international students.

Gender Studies

The field of Gender Studies is based on the view that gender and gender relationships shouldn't be considered as naturally given states but rather as social constructions. Gender Studies courses examine concepts of "masculinity" and "femininity", which refer to different constructs depending on the cultural context and have undergone historical development. All international (exchange) students are welcome to attend courses at the Gendup Centre. The Gendup research center offers a great variety of course topics and content, and several courses are taught in English. More information is available on PLUSonline and at www.uni-salzburg.at/gendup.
