Health Insurance	For non-European students: Student health insurance is mandatory if you stay more than 3 months and is paid upon registration upon arrival (around 217 euros per year in 2017)  For European students: if you have the European Health insurance Card (EHIC) which is valid for the duration of our stay in France, you don't have to contract a French insurance. You must present it at your arrival. If you don't have the EHIC, you must enroll for the Student Health Insurance.
Housing	IPSA doesn't have any residence hall. IPSA gives to its international students an access to an accommodation platform online where students can find different offers from private landlords, agencies and student residences and book accommodation (rentals, colocations, homestay). They can have an assistance help desk to assist them with the paperwork when booking (in English, Chinese, French..) Link : https://logement.ipsa.fr/fr/  Please note that most housing can request a European guarantor.  Housing in Ivry costs around 550 euros per month Foreign students may have access to State housing aid (called ALE = "Aide au Logement Etudiant") awarded by the Caisse Primaire d'Allocations Familiales (CAF) – provided they are European citizens or hold a residence permit or a "visa de long séjour valant titre de séjour" (VLS-TS visa). You can apply on-line on www.caf.fr . The support team from the online platform can assist the students with the procedure as well as their "IPSA buddy".  http://www.ipsa.fr/en/student-life/practical-information
