_____ authorized to act by virtue of the office held.

WHEREAS, in order to facilitate professional choices through direct knowledge of the world of work and to create moments of alternation between study and work within the training processes, the subjects referred to in Article 18(1)(a) of Law No 196 of 24 June 1997 may promote training and guidance courses in companies for the benefit of those who have already completed compulsory schooling;

HAVING REGARD TO the Regulation laying down rules for the implementation of the principles and criteria set out in Article 18 of Law No 196 of 24 June 1997 on training and guidance placements issued by the Ministry of Labour and Social Security by Decree No 142 of 25 March 1998;

HAVING REGARD TO art. 10 of Ministerial Decree no. 270 of 22 October 2004, laying down rules on the objectives and qualifying training activities of the classes.

THE PARTIES AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING:

Article 1

Pursuant to art. 18 of Law no. 196 of 24 June 1997, the 'hosting organization' undertakes to accept at their facilities subjects in training and guidance courses, at the proposal of the University, in a number not exceeding that provided for in art. 1 of the Decree of the Ministry of Labour n.142 of 25 March 1998.

Article 2

1. The training and orientation internship, pursuant to art. 18, paragraph 1 letter d) of Law n.196/1997, does not constitute an employment relationship.

For the sole purposes and for the effect of Legislative Decree no. 81 of 09/04/2008, art. 2 and subsequent amendments, the trainee is treated equally to the workers of the host subject.

2. During the internship, the training and orientation activity is followed and verified by a tutor appointed by the University, as head of education and organization, and by a business manager indicated by the hosting Organization;
3. For each trainee, on the basis of this Agreement, a project is prepared for activities of curricular internship, signed on behalf of the University by the university tutor, the Coordinator of the Course of Studies or the contact professor for internships appointed by the Course of Studies, containing:
 - a) the name of the trainee;
 - b) the names of the university tutor and the company tutor;
 - c) objectives and methods of the internship, with an indication of the time the interns must be present at the hosting organization;
 - d) the facilities of the hosting organization (plants, headquarters, offices, departments) where the internship takes place;
 - e) the identification details of the INAIL and third-party liability insurances
4. The beginning of the internship will take place after the project has been formalised for curricular internship activities.

Article 3

1. The University insures trainees against accidents at work at INAIL, through the special form of management on behalf of the State, as well as for civil liability at insurance companies operating in the sector.
2. The University undertakes to ask the lecturers who carry out the function of tutors to explicitly assume the obligation of confidentiality with regard to the information, documents and/or knowledge that come into their possession during the course of the collaboration covered by this agreement and to maintain the utmost confidentiality with regard to the same.
3. Curricular internships are not subject to Mandatory Communication of commencement of work.

Article 4

1. During the internship the student must:
 - a) Follow tutors' instructions and refer to them for any type of query or organizational need.
 - b) Comply with rules on hygiene, safety and health at work, as well as with the prevention and emergency measures adopted by the host organization pursuant to Legislative Decree n. 81/2008;
 - c) maintain the necessary confidentiality and not communicate any information, documents and/or knowledge acquired during the course of the internship, without prior consent by the hosting organization. The confidentiality obligation extends beyond the duration of the internship;
 - d) compulsorily, fill in the diary booklet of activities carried out, handed over to the trainee by the Promoting Organization.

Article 5

The Promoting Organization, based on analyses carried out through the Risk Assessment Form, needs to perform the following activities:

- a) Have interns undergo health monitoring according to the protocol defined by the Company Doctor, where required and provided for (art. 18, c.1, lett. G e art. 41, D. Lgs. 81/08)
- b) Inform and train interns on Risk factors connected with their duties and the relevant preventative measures (ex artt. 18, c.1, lett. L; 36 e 37, D. Lgs. 81/08);
- c) Provide appropriate PPE, where necessary.

The Hosting Organization undertakes to:

- a) Guarantee that all internship activities can be carried out safely, in compliance with the current laws in force on health and safety in the workplace or with rules established at the moment of signing the agreement, also through the document ANNEX 1 for companies or institutions and ANNEX 2 in case of ONLUS/NON-PROFIT without employees.
- b) Guarantee the intern that the hygiene and safety conditions provided for by the international conventions on safety are met;
- c) Train interns about all the risks – both related and unrelated to their duties - which they might incur, so as to make interns fully aware of the potential risks and of all the measures implemented for their own safeguard and protection.
- d) Integrate, if necessary, the information regarding specific risks present in the hosting country, especially in terms of environmental, cultural, religious, logistics or crime-related factors.
- e) Where necessary, train interns about all the potential risks related or unrelated to their duties;
- f) where necessary, integrate the interns' health protocol by subjecting them to an integrative medical examination by means of their own Competent Doctor or other relevant professional figure.
- g) Inform workers on the emergency procedures in place in the facilities
- h) Ensure that interns possess appropriate and provide them with any additional material they need, where necessary, in case of exposure to specific job-related risks.

In the event of an accident during the course of the training activity, to promptly report the event to the Director of the Department to which the intern's course of study refers, in order to allow them to report the incident to the National Institute for Insurance against Accidents at Work (INAIL) within the timeframe provided for by current legislation.

To provide the intern with a document certifying the completion of the training programme where the effective performance of planned activities is also stated.

Lastly, it should be noted that in the case of a public body, the signing of the agreement certifies compliance with the safety conditions laid down by current health and safety legislation. It is therefore not necessary to fill in the self-declaration in the annexes mentioned in point a.

Article 6

The University lecturer who requests the activation of the agreement, within the scope of the responsibilities given to them by the Promoting Organization, undertakes to:

- a) provide the hosting organisation with information on the prevention measures already adopted in the University (for example: type of information and training carried out and health protocol adopted and, in general, everything useful to define the actions carried out by the University to protect the trainee).
- b) Ensure that the Hosting Organization complies with the safety requirements contained in the relevant regulations by verifying that the relevant attachments have been filled out (ANNEX 1 for companies or institutions and ANNEX 2 in case of ONLUS/NON-PROFIT without employees)
- c) Fill out attachment 2 as Tutor/RADRL when attachment 1 has not been filled out by the Hosting Organization so as to guarantee the safe performance of training activities.
- d) Have interns undergo health monitoring where required (ex art. 18, c.1, lett. G e art. 41, D. Lgs. 81/08)
- e) Check that appropriate PPEs are provided, where necessary.

Article 7

The implementation of the internship does not entail any financial or other charges for the University or for the Hosting Organization, except those assumed with the present agreement or those autonomously decided by the Hosting Organization.

Article 8

1. This Agreement shall be valid for three years from the date of its stipulation and shall be renewable on expiry by an explicit expression of both Parties. Either Party shall have the right to withdraw, before the expiry date and with at least three months' notice, by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt or PEC to: tirocini.studenti@pec.unina.it.
2. In case of termination, the completion of the internships already started must be ensured.
