Housing assistance	The International Office can only offer a very small number of dormitory rooms. Information will be provided after the acceptance.

Living Expenses estimated per month	Housing: Between 250-500 Euros Food and Drink: Around 200 Euros Books: 30 Euro (depending on the field of study) Public transportation: approximately 260 Euros ("Semesterticket") payable once for the entire semester Please note that these figures can merely represent a rough estimate. A lot depends on your personal lifestyle.
Health insurance/other insurances	Health Insurance Students with a valid European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) do not need an extra insurance. Those without will need to either be registered with a German health insurance company or need to check if their own private insurance is sufficient upon arrival in Berlin. Third Party Liability Insurance It is the responsibility of the student to take out insurance (from home) for personal belongings, accidents and third party liability while studying in Germany. TU Berlin does not cover any losses that may occur.
Additional fees to pay	If staying in a dormitory, students are required to pay a deposit of one and half months' rent.
Student jobs available/allowed	It is difficult to find a student job in Berlin and foreign students cannot base their finances on the chance of getting a job.
VISA	The sending and receiving institutions will provide assistance, if required in securing visas for incoming and outbound mobile participants, according to the requirements of the ERASMUS Charter for Higher Education www.betreuung-int-stud.tu-berlin.de
