Merit Ranking Lists

Candidates will be ordered in the final lists by following the decreasing order of the sum of their marks. In the case of parity in marks between two or more candidates, precedence is given to the youngest candidate.

Selected candidates will be admitted to the chosen PhD programme on the basis of their standings in the ranking list until all the positions available, with and without grants, have been filled.

If a candidate - eligible for enrolment in a PhD Programme – does not complete the enrollment procedure by the deadline established in the next section or, in case of renouncement by the beginning of the academic activities, the position will be assigned to the candidate who follows her/him in the ranking list.

Enrollment procedure

The Rectoral Decrees approving the rankings of the PhD courses will be published, from the December 5th 2022, in the Official Register of the University, present on the University website and at the address <http://www.unina.it/didattica/post-laurea/dottorati-di-ricerca/bandi-diammissione>.

This publication will formally notify the winners of the competition results. The winners, no later than the next five days from the date of publication of the Rectoral Decree approving the ranking list, must deliver the enrolment form duly filled in: the form is available on the University Website: <http://www.unina.it/didattica/post-laurea/dottorati-di-ricerca/bandi-di-ammissione>;

That form will include the following documents:

- 1) a substitute self-certificate confirming the awarding of a master's degree, and its final grade;
- 2) a substitute self-certificate where the admitted candidate declares she/he is not (and that even in the past she/he has not been) a recipient of other PhD scholarships; the enrolling PhD students must also declare they are not attending a scuola di specializzazione non medica (non-medical graduate school), a master's degree or a Ph.D. programme: should this not correspond to their position, candidates must undersign a declaration confirming the suspension of this attendance;
- 3) a declaration where the candidate confirms she/he is informed on the prohibition to attend – all over the duration of the PhD course – a master's degree or a Ph.D. programme.

If their academic degree has not been already declared equivalent to the Italian one, admitted candidates which are non-italian citizens and did graduate abroad, must also deliver to the PhD offices a certificate of the master degree, which must be previously translated and legalized (with an attached "dichiarazione di valore" / Declaration of value) by the Italian Embassy/Consulate with competencies on the Country where the University which conferred that degree is located. Further information are available at the MIUR (Italian Ministry for University and Research) website: <http://www.studiare-in-italia.it/studentistranieri/>

All the self declarations above mentioned could be reported, in a unique form, which can be downloaded from the University of Naples website: <http://www.unina.it/didattica/post-laurea/dottorati-diricerca/bandi-di-ammissione>.

Together with the enrolling form, a photocopy of an identity document (duly undersigned) and the receipt of the payment of the regional tax for the right to education (tassa regionale per il diritto allo studio) have to be submitted.

In the Rectoral Decree will be established the procedure to send the required documents for the enrollment. Students not fulfilling such requirements will be no longer enrolled in the PhD Programme.

Following explicit or tacit withdrawal by successful candidates before the start of the course, any vacant places will be assigned to the next candidates in the ranking. Should any places with funding become available following withdrawals, the following may apply for such vacant places, according to the rankings: winners who already enrolled without scholarship, winners of a place without funding who haven't enrolled by the deadline for the enrolment, the other eligible candidates in the ranking.

No further communication will be made to the candidates

Student grants

Scholarships have a yearly duration: they will be renewed on the condition that the PhD student has completed the program scheduled for the previous year, and that he has been admitted to the following one. The annual scholarship amounts to 16.243,00 Euros, including social welfare charges. The grant covers the entire time duration of the PhD programme.

The instalments will be credited monthly, by postponed payments. PhD students with a personal income exceeding 16.243,00 Euros (counted out the scholarship itself) can not be the recipients of the grant. The amount of the scholarship is increased to a maximum extent of 50% for periods the PhD student spends abroad, for no more than 12 months. This increase will be not supplied for periods the PhD student will spend in her/his own Country, or in the Country in which she/he has the residence.

Scholarships already credited to PhD students exceeding the aforesaid yearly income must be given back to the University. The same if the PhD student does not fulfil the requirement stated below (see section on "Rights and Obligations of PhD Students"). Whoever has already received a student grant for a PhD Programme, even for one half of the total duration of the PhD course, can not apply for a new grant a second time.

The grants can not be added up to other scholarships, except those ones from national or foreign institutions, to integrate training or research activities abroad. Scholarships will be credited according to the actual periods of attendance to study and research activities. In addition to the scholarship (and limited to the availability of resources in the financial budget of the university) an extra- budget will be assigned to the PhD student, to support her/his research activities in Italy and abroad: this budget will be dependent on the typology of the PhD program, and anyhow it will be no less than the 10% of the PhD scholarship amount.

In the act of enrolling, who is eligible for a grant must present a declaration about presumed gross personal income and absence of the above mentioned incompatibilities. Such a declaration must be reaffirmed at the beginning of each subsequent academic year of attendance of the PhD Programme. Moreover, students supported with grants must provide themselves with a "Gestione separata" position, to be registered at INPS (the Italian National Social Security Institute). To comply with the enrolment at INPS, refer to the website <http://www.inps.it>

Fees and contributions

Students enrolled at PhD Programme are required to pay, for each year of course, the regional tax for education of 140€.

ARTICOLO 13

(Obblighi, incompatibilità, sospensioni)

Attending a PhD course implies an exclusive and full time engagement.

PhD students are obliged to attend and undertake all the scheduled activities, to present all the oral and written reports required, and carry out whatsoever it is established by the Academic Board of the PhD Programme.

At the end of each academic year the Academic Board, on the basis of a detailed report of the activities and research carried out by each PhD student, will deliberate upon admission to the next year, or will propose to the Rector her/his exclusion from the PhD Programme.

At the end of the PhD programme, the students must submit to the Academic Board a report concerning all the activities they attended to, and their publications, if any. Contemporary attendance at the PhD Programme and at other Ph.D. programmes, Master's degree and nonmedical graduate school is forbidden.

Students enrolled in a PhD Programme may request suspension from attending the courses for maternity, civil service (for this last occurrence, no more than 1 year). The Academic Board will take note of these suspensions.

Students enrolled in a PhD programme may request suspension from attending the course due to serious illness for no more than 6 months. Suspension with a duration more than 30 days obliges the PhD students to recover all the time corresponding to the interruption of their academic activities; additionally, for PhD students granted with scholarship, this suspension entails the cessation of the grant payment for the period involved.

The entire duration of the PhD course cannot be reduced due to these suspensions: thus, the completion of the course will be deferred for a corresponding time. PhD students are allowed to carry out her/his activities abroad, for a period no longer – as a whole - than 12 Months, in case of a cotutelle agreement the period abroad can be extended to a maximum of 18 months. In such a case, the authorization by the Academic Board will be needed, and the previous consent by their supervisors. For periods no longer – as a whole – of 6 months, it will be sufficient the authorization by the PhD coordinator, and the previous consent by the supervisor.

Degree of Doctor of Philosophy and PhD Thesis

The degree of “Doctor of Philosophy” (in its shorted Italian form “Dott. Ric.”, corresponding to “Ph.D.”) is obtained by passing the final examination, i.e. defending a PhD thesis at the end of the PhD Programme. The Rector confers it in conformity with the university regulations. The final dissertation can be written in English, or in a different language, with the previous approval of the Academic Board. By 30 days after the discussion of the PhD thesis, the University will record them – as electronic files – in the MIUR (Italian Ministry for University and Research) data-base. The University of Naples Federico II uploads the full text of the PhD thesis on its Open Archive, with a free internet access. The University also provides to transfer the PhD theses to the National Libraries of Rome and Florence. On duly justified request by the PhD student, the Academic Board could allow to inhibit parts of the PhD thesis to the open access, so that data covered by industrial secret can not be consulted – for a certain period - by third parties.

Access, Treatment of Personal Data and Responsible of the Procedure

All the candidates are allowed to require an access to the procedures related to the competitive examinations, within the frame of rules and criteria stated in the University Regulation about the right to be informed on its administrative acts. The University will take care to respect the privacy on the personal data of the candidates. The Chief of the Office for PhD programmes, Fellowships and Scholarships at the University of Naples Federico II is the responsible about any fulfilment of the here announced competitive examinations, apart those acts which are competence of the Admission Board.

Publication of the PhD Call

This call is published in an electronic format on the website of the University of Naples Federico II, on the European website “Euraxess”, on the MIUR (Italian Ministry for University and research) website. All the documents related to this call will be exclusively published on the Official register of the University of Naples (www.unina.it). The electronic publication must be considered as an official notice to all the interested candidates: no personal communication will be sent to them. All the acts and documents here above cited will be also posted up in the Office for PhD programmes, Fellowships and Scholarships at the University of Naples “Federico II”, in Via G. Cesare, 29 – Napoli.
