Departments offer “study line packages.” Students can only choose courses within a study line during the first application phase. Once the timetables have been published, students can select courses from other lines or departments.

BSc: Business Administration and Economics.

Applicants must have finished 60 ECTS or 1 year of undergraduate studies with the minimum GPA level of 7.

MSc: Study lines: Business Management, Corporate Finance, Digital Management and Data Analysis, Human Resource Management and Organisational Psychology, Innovation Management and Marketing.

Due to capacity issues, the master studies in the Department of Business and Economics only accepts students nominated to the department with a completed 180 ECTS bachelor in Business Administration, Economics or related subjects and have the minimum GPA level of 7,25. We can only guarantee which courses will cause schedule conflicts once the timetables have been published.

Study restrictions

- Students must take 70% of their courses in the department they are nominated to (1-2 electives from another department). Exceptions can be made for students studying in programs that combine two departments. However, this can cause timetabling issues.
  - To increase the options of courses available, the School of Computer Science now allows 3rd year BSc students (completed 120 ECTS) to take MSc-level courses.
  - Exchange students cannot take courses offered by Iceland School of Energy (except ISE partners) MBA & Clinical Psychology.
  - Iceland School of Energy: It's not possible to nominate students to ISE unless there is a specific agreement in place. Exchange students from partner universities of ISE are only allowed to take one semester in the programme.
  - Students are only accepted for thesis work if pre-arranged with a Professor.
